Machelle L. Redmond named to *Georgia Rising Stars

MINNEAPOLIS — Jan. 25, 2010: Minneapolis-based Law & Politics, publishers of Super Lawyers magazines, announced that Atlanta, Ga., business attorney, Machelle Redmond has been named to the 2010 Georgia Rising Stars list. Each year, no more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor.

Redmond's commitment to education was one of the prominent reasons she was selected. Furthermore, she will complete her Executive MBA from the University of Georgia's Terry College of Business this Spring.

In 2008, Redmond founded Redmond Real Estate Institute, a nonprofit organization providing continuing education courses to realtors and promoting real estate education within the community.

She participates frequently in speaking engagements for continuing education seminars for realtors, lenders and attorneys. Additionally, her articles on real estate related matters, such as Working with Entities in Real Estate Transactions, Choosing Business Entities, and Ethics and Professionalism have been published in trade magazines and other publications.

Redmond has practiced exclusively in the areas of real estate and business since 1998. Her professional memberships include the State Bar of Georgia (former real property section executive member), the Georgia Real Estate Closing Attorneys Association (Board member), the Georgia Real Estate Commission (Associate Broker Licensee), Former National Association of Securities Dealers, Atlanta Board of Commercial Realtors, Women's Council of REALTORS®. National Association of Professional Women, The Metro Chamber of Commerce and the Junior League of Atlanta.

The list of attorneys selected to Georgia Rising Stars appears in the March 2010 issue of Atlanta Magazine in a special advertising section and in the 2010 issue of Georgia Super Lawyers magazine which is sent to lawyers across the state.

Law & Politics strictly adheres to a rigorous selection process with the goals of casting as wide a net as possible, evaluating quality in the most objective possible terms and verifying and validating all data. The only way a lawyer can be listed in Rising Stars is through this selection process. The determination of whether a lawyer will be placed in the Rising Stars list is independent of advertising or any other payments.

No other legal publisher identifies qualified candidates by using a multi-step evaluation process that incorporates peer recognition and professional achievement. Law & Politics uses a nomination process, peer evaluation and internal research, which acts as a system of checks and balances. The resulting product is a diverse and comprehensive listing of outstanding lawyers.

Founded in 1990, Law & Politics has been publishing annual Super Lawyers lists since 1991. Super Lawyers is published in 50 states and the District of Columbia by Law & Politics, a division of Key Professional Media, Inc., owned by Vance Opperman, the former president of West Publishing.
